

The Edith Stein Guild Presents

“The Thought of Pope Francis: Continuity or Rupture?”

Rev. Joseph W. Koterski, S.J., is a member of the Philosophy Department at Fordham University, where he has taught since his ordination to the priesthood in 1992. He is Editor-In-Chief of International Philosophical Quarterly and serves as Master of Queen's Court Residential College for Freshmen. He regularly teaches courses on natural law ethics and medieval philosophy. Father Koterski has produced videotaped lecture-courses, the most recent on "Biblical Wisdom Literature" for The Teaching Company. One of his latest publications is: An Introduction to Medieval Philosophy: Basic Concepts (Wiley-Blackwell, 2009).

A Presentation by

Rev. Joseph W. Koterski, S.J.

Saturday, December 6, 2014

Our Lady of Peace Church

(between 2nd and 3rd Avenues)
New York, NY 10022

10:00 AM Mass

Rev. John Moran, M.M., O.C.D.S.
Celebrant and Homilist

11:30 AM Presentation by Rev. Joseph Koterski, S.J.

A Q&A session will follow Father Koterski's lecture

This lecture will examine the evidence thus far available for holding that Pope Francis's papacy will maintain continuity (and for holding that) while it is likely to bring about (real) rupture from previous epochs in the Church.

Clara Sarrocco, a member of the Edith Stein Guild, will present a brief introduction on:
“The Road Not Taken”

$20.00 registration includes light refreshments. Please make check payable to The Edith Stein Guild and mail to:
